WHARF AND WAVE.

Australia this morning.

Expert examination showed that the damage to the Makee's sugar from water will not exceed $20.

Vessels at Hilo are, the Annie Johnson and the Rhoderick Dhu. Both will take sugar cargoes for the Coast. All the Chinese brought by the Peking were landed in quarantine yesterday. Of the 188 arrivals, 103 have contracted.

Trades started in again yesterday morning, though the wind was all day standard time.

There is no more of the schooner Sarah and Eliza. The head wind of the past few days was too much for her, as shy lay on the reef at Walalua, Last Friday she began to break up, and there is now nothing left of her. The loss is about $1,000,

On the way over from Kauai, night efore last, the James Makee repeatedly shipped heavy seas. Her cargo was damaged, but to what extent will not be known until a somplete survey has been made. The heavy southerly swell was too much for the little boat.

The American ship C. F. Sargent, Capt. C. C. Merse, arrived at dark last evening, 58 days from Newcastle, with 2.120 tons of coal, consigned to order. Fine weather until southerly winds were met with. Near Islands for 10
